The Fair Next Week.

Preparations are about all perfected for Jasper's annual fall celebration. One thousand catalogs, with complete premium list have been distributed over Jasper and Barton Counties and hundreds of entries of stock and farm products have been made or arranged for.

The W. C. T. U. will conduct a free rest room for women and children in the Keltner building.

This is a new feature of the fair and the fair committee feels that it is fortunate in having the support of the W. C. T. U. in this matter and they want it understood that all women and children are welcome to avail themselves of the conveniences of the rest room.

Now, let's clean up again, and give our visitors a good reception in a clean, tidy little city.

Cut the Weeds.

A number of citizens of Jasper have become negligent regarding the cutting of the weeds about the premises, and consequently certain parts of the town look very ragged and bad. If these parties do not cut the weeds and clean up these places I will be forced to have it done and charged to property owners, according to terms of the ordinance regarding same.

Resolutions.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by the W. C. T. U. at a meeting held Tuesday evening:

Whereas it has come to our knowledge that certain officials of the Jasper City Fair have solicited and printed in the fair catalogs liquor advertisements; and

Whereas it is well known that the citizens of this community are unalterably opposed to the liquor business in any and all of its branches; Therefore be it

Resolved by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Jasper that we strongly protest against the said advertising of liquor houses in this community, and especially do we resent this action on the part of said fair officials since we have undertaken to aid in making the fair a success; and be it

Resolved that it is the sense of this Union that we can not in the future give the fair our support if such advertising is solicited by the fair committee; and be it further

Resolved that we hereby ask all good citizens of Jasper and community to indorse these resolutions; and be it further

Resolved that we call upon all good citizens to see that no liquor selling takes place, or gambling or other improper devices be operated on the grounds or in the town during the fair; and be it further

Resolved that we do hereby express our hearty approval of the Jasper City Fair in so far as it can be made a benefit to the town.

A Fine Well.

Some of the wells in this vicinity have gone dry during the summer, and quite a few families have been "borrowing" water the past month. Mrs. J. M. Robbins is the proud possessor of a well that she thinks the best in town. She says five families have been using water from her well for all domestic purposes for some time, and like the widows' cruse of oil the contents do not diminish.

For Sale.

The song books used in the revival services can be bought cheap by applying to Rev. A. K. Gurley. There are nearly 100. The book contains a fine collection of songs and hymns and would be just the thing for some small church.
